

Please join us

for the California State University, Northridge Celebration of Constitution Day.

The Constitution and the Electoral Process:

History and Modern Implications

The Constitution and the Electoral Process: History and Modern Implications

What does the Constitution say about the electoral process?

Equally important, what does it not say?

What issues and problems have arisen as an 18th Century document continues to serve a 21st Century democracy?

Our panelists will explore these questions in a public forum followed by questions from the audience.

Saturday, September 13

California State University, Northridge
18111 Nordhoff Street
University Student Union - Grand Salon

Continental Breakfast: 8:30 a.m.
Panel Discussion: 9 a.m.

Panelists

Dr. James Sefton, Ph.D.
CSUN Department of History

Dr. John Evans, Ph.D.
CSUN Department of Political Science

There is no cost for the program, but RSVPs are required by Friday, September 5, 2008. Please call The Tseng College at (818) 677-7131. Parking permits ($5) for Lot G4 are available at information booth #3. Please enter G4 from Zelzah Ave. The booth opens at 7 a.m.

Constitution Day

September 13
University Student Union
Grand Salon

