

MASTER OF SOCIAL WORK

This program provides advanced professional preparation for those seeking careers focused on addressing human social-services needs.

HIGHLIGHTS

- You will be equipped to enhance social services, create solutions for neighborhoods, and work to improve the quality of life in your community
- Fall 2016: Offered online as a two-year full-time program and at College of the Canyons (Santa Clarita) as a three-year part-time program
- Emphasizes critical and creative thinking that enables graduates to initiate, evaluate and adapt interventions appropriate to the relevant contexts
- Creates a context for professional, ethical and effective practice by incorporating content on the profession's history, philosophy and values.

CSUN's MSW program is accredited by the Council on Social Work Education (CSWE), and the university is accredited by the Western Association of Schools & Colleges.

MSW Field Education

This program features a substantial field-education component that enables students to apply the concepts and practice the skills learned in their coursework as well as experience their own effectiveness in a variety of situations.

In addition to academic classes, students begin their 16 hours per week of internship (scheduled on weekdays during regular business hours) in the program's first term.
