IEP Conditional Admission Fee: $100
SAC Application Fee: $300

6. What is the total cost?
Please see the tables on this page.

7. Do you have scholarships?
Scholarships are not available to IEP or SAC students. CSUN admitted degree-seeking (matriculated) international students have the option to work on campus for additional income.

8. Is the campus safe?
With a police department located directly on campus, CSUN police are committed to keeping the campus safe. In addition, all student orientations include safety-awareness training.

9. Can I live on campus?
On-campus housing is available to IEP and SAC students. Visit http://tsengcollege.csun.edu/studentinfo/housing-IEP for information.

Students who wish to live on campus must complete application at http://tsengcollege.csun.edu/programs/IEP/apply.

10. Do I need a car?
If you live on campus or in a nearby apartment building, a car is not necessary since a wide range of stores and service providers are within walking distance of campus. CSUN also has a free shuttle to a nearby Metrolink station, which connects to buses and trains that serve much of the Los Angeles area and beyond.

For information, visit www-admn.csun.edu/parking/transport/metrolink.pdf.
