Semester at CSUN (SAC) is a study-abroad program that enables international students to enroll for one or two semesters of university classes with CSUN students. SAC students are supported throughout the semester on academic and student life matters by dedicated program advisors.

Semester at CSUN gives you:
- Access to university classes in a variety of departments
- Academic credits that transfer to your home university
- Academic advisement and registration assistance
- An American university experience

Why CSUN:
- CSUN is one of the largest public universities in California.
- CSUN has decades of experience hosting international students.
- SAC students can access campus facilities and services including: the fitness center, health center, library, tutoring services, student clubs and intramural sports.

Application & Admission Requirements:
- Minimum of GPA 2.0 for undergraduated level students, and a minimum GPA or 2.5 for graduate level students, based on 4.0 grading system from an accredited institution
- Meet one or more of the accepted CSUN English-language proficiency minimum scores
