This one-year program provides international students with a clear path into the university. Created for first-time freshmen, the program helps students develop the academic and English-language skills needed to succeed at CSUN.

Pathway Gives You:

- Conditional admission eligibility.
- Academic credits toward graduation.
- Advisement, tutoring and student support.
- Integrated classes with CSUN students.
- Ability to enroll in CSUN summer classes.

Why CSUN:

- CSUN is one of the largest public universities in California.
- CSUN has decades of experience hosting international students.
- Pathway students gain access to all campus facilities and services, including the fitness and health centers, the library, student clubs and more!

Program Requirements:

- Minimum of 3.0 high school GPA for first-time freshmen, based on a 4.0 grading system from an accredited institution.
- Applicants must be at least 18 years old.
- Meet one of the accepted CSUN English-language proficiency minimum scores for the Pathway program.
