This one-year program provides international students with a clear path into the university. Created for first-time freshmen, the program helps students develop the academic and English-language skills needed to succeed at CSUN.

Pathway Gives You:

• Conditional admission eligibility.
• Academic credits toward graduation.
• Advisement, tutoring and student support.
• Integrated classes with CSUN students
• Ability to enroll in CSUN summer classes.

Why CSUN:

• CSUN is one of the largest public universities in California.
• CSUN has decades of experience hosting international students.
• Pathway students gain access to all campus facilities and services, including the fitness and health centers, the library, student clubs and more!

Program Requirements

• Minimum of 3.0 high school GPA for for first-time freshmen, based on a 4.0 grading system from an accredited institution.
• Applicants must be at least 18 years old.
• Meet one of the accepted CSUN English-language proficiency minimum scores for the Pathway program.
