Learn English in our full-time Intensive English Program, enter the university by pursuing Intensive English with Conditional Admission, or spend one or two semesters taking academic courses in our Semester at CSUN program.

California State University, Northridge is a highly regarded public university with more than 30 years’ experience welcoming students from around the world.

Every year, nearly 3,000 international students come to CSUN to achieve their goals and to experience life in Southern California.

You’ll find many ways to unwind on our beautiful campus. Hang out with your fellow CSUN students in our student union, restaurants and coffee shops.
On-campus housing with other CSUN students is an option, or you may prefer an off-campus apartment in the Northridge area. Host families are available for anyone interested in the homestay experience.

Swim, exercise and enjoy rock climbing, zumba and yoga classes at our Student Recreation Center. Attend a concert, play or other events at our Valley Performing Arts Center.

CSUN is in the northern part of the City of Los Angeles. It’s a wonderful place to live and to study. There’s always something interesting going on.

Southern California has so much to discover, there is something for everyone – including famous California beaches and landmarks you will want to see. Possibilities include Hollywood, Beverly Hills, Universal Studios, Disneyland, Los Angeles city tours, and weekend trips to the Grand Canyon, Las Vegas, San Diego and San Francisco.
We help you get ready for your next step – whether you want to pursue a degree, stay for a semester or two, or return to your home country to continue your studies. At CSUN, you can do more than just study English. We make it easy to transition into the university.
